“WHY I WANT TO GO TO HEAVEN: PART 1”

BY: BILLY BLAND

Every person that has lived upon the face of this earth has a soul that will exist eternally. When God created man He created him in His own image (Gen. 1:26-27). Therefore man is far different from the rest of . . . the creation in that he has a spirit that will survive the death of his body. James says that the body without the spirit is dead (Jas. 2: 26). Yet one's soul continues to exist apart from his body. Solomon wrote; "Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it" (Ecc. 12:7). A very serious thought that each of us should contemplate is: Where will my soul be 100 years from now, 1,000 years from now, 10,000 years from now? Every soul shall exist eternally in one of two places: heaven, or hell (Matt. 25:46). We decide in this life where we will be in the next life. Our destiny is determined by the road which we are traveling (Matt. 7:13- 14). The purpose of this article is to encourage us to so live that heaven will be the home of our soul. Excuse first person references, but perhaps this will make it more personal to each reader. I want to go to heaven; I speak for all others who too want to go to heaven.
