“THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH: PART 1”

BY: BILL BOYD

The Christian Sabbath is a nickname men have given to the first day of the week. It is not a Bible expression and it does not express a Bible idea.

The seventh day sabbath was a sign of the covenant between God and Israel (Exodus 31:13-17). It signified that God had set the nation of Israel apart from all other nations for the purpose of fulfilling his promise to Abraham, that through his seed all the nations of the earth would be blessed. The sabbath signified that Israel was “sanctified;” thus it was limited to the children under the covenant. If the sabbath had been for all the world it would have signified nothing for Israel. In Genesis 2:3, Moses tells us that “God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it,” but he does not say in Genesis that he wanted the world to “keep” it. The patriarchs in Genesis did not keep it. They did not even know about it. The sabbath was unknown until God made it known on Sinai (Deut. 5:1-3; Neh. 9:13-14; Ezek. 20:10-12). Its observance came with the giving of the Old Law, and its commanded observance ended with the end of the Old Law. No one living today has ever been commanded to keep the seventh day holy unto the Lord.
