“ANTIDOTE FOR WORRY: PART 1”

BY: ROD RUTHERFORD

Worry is a killer! It is a contributing factor in heart disease and hypertension according to medical experts. It is also directly linked to mental and emotional illness. Worry is not only a killer of the human body, it is also a killer of the joy of living. Many people are so paralyzed with worry they cannot enjoy the simple pleasures of life.

Worry is distinctively a human characteristic. Did you ever see a horse or a dog or any other animal with a worried expression on its face? Unfortunately, Christians seem to be as much afflicted with worry as people in the world.

Many of our worries are unnecessary. God does not want us to be miserable and morose, filled with fear of the present and dread of the future. Jesus said: “I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly” (John 10:10). In God’s Word we can learn a few simple rules which, if applied, will largely eliminate worry from our lives.

First, let us realize God loves us and is PERSONALLY concerned about each one of us as individuals. Jesus told his disciples: “Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows” (Matt. 10:29-31). Paul said: “What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not His own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him freely give us all things” (Rom. 8:31,32)?

Second, let us have faith in God. We may think we trust God but falter when a crisis comes. Jesus chided His disciples on one occasion by saying, “O ye of little faith!” (Matt. 6:30). God has all the abundance of the universe at His disposal (Psa. 24:1). He loves us and will not withhold any good thing from us if we but ask Him according to His will. “But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you” (Matt. 6:33). Most if not all of our worries would be dissipated if we had a stronger faith in God and in His providence.

As Israel battled the Amorites,
This remarkable celestial event,
Took place once in all history,
As the days for hours, was unspent.
