“THE WAY: PART 4”

BY: H. LEO BOLES

“A New and Living Way”

The writer of the Hebrews' letter says:

Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holy place by the blood of Jesus, by the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; and having a great priest over the house of God; let us draw near with a true heart in fulness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience: and having our body washed with pure water, let us hold fast the confession of our hope that it waver not; for he is faithful that promised (Heb. 10:19-23).

The Christian life was a new way of living. Nothing like it had appeared before; it was different from all the great religions of the ancient world. It was something that the sages of the ages had not found; it was something that the philosophers had never planned. It was, indeed, new to the world. It was a “new and living way.” It was a new way of living and bore new fruits. This little word, “the Way,” describes that way of life which requires volumes to describe and instruct. It is the way of life that exhorts those in it to love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, and self-control. This new way that leads to eternal life has no tribalism in it; it has no national-ism in it; it has no color line; no sectarianism in it. It is the way of happiness in this life and the life to come. Let all walk faithfully in this way, and they may claim heaven as their home.
