“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other
 as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

Serving Since 1923

“And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these (Matthew 6:28-29).”

“BEHOLD, NOW IS THE DAY OF SALVATION”

BY: ANDY CATES

To the Bible student, the words of this title are very familiar. For Paul wrote, “Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation” (2 Cor. 6:2). Sadly, many people today seem to get in a hurry only when they are on the freeway or in the “20-item or less” express line at Wal-Mart and not when it comes to obedience to God. Albeit, the latter is where the urgency really counts. “To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts” (Heb. 4:7).

Our obedience to the Lord must be first and foremost in our lives. We must not tarry. This was the point Jesus made in Luke 9:59-62: “And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God. And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house. And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.” The Lord expected these men to follow Him immediately. We must be prompt in following Christ in our obedience to Him.

It is extremely dangerous to tarry. Though he trembled at Paul’s preaching, Felix decided to wait for a convenient season to obey (Acts 24:25), and, as far as we know, that convenient season never came. The heart of Felix became harder as time passed. The convenient season will never come for many, because to them, turning from a sinful life is so inconvenient. King Agrippa told Paul, “Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian” (Acts 26:28). Agrippa was almost persuaded, almost, but lost.

When we read of conversions in the New Testament, we observe that those who obeyed did so without delay. They that received the Word gladly on the day of Pentecost heard one sermon and obeyed (Acts 2:41). The Ethiopian eunuch heard one sermon and obeyed (Acts 8:26- 39); so did Cornelius (Acts 10), Lydia (Acts 16:13-15), and the Philippian jailer (Acts 16).

“Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin” (Jam. 4:17). May we as Christians and those who are nonChristians not put off until tomorrow what we know to do today. Let us not harden our hearts. “Behold, now is the day of salvation.”

NEWS

- Welcome! We love you!
- Sympathy is extended to the family of Joe Gribble. He passed away this past Friday. Please pray for comfort for his family.
- Thanks to all who helped with the baby shower for Jason and Brandi Gann last Sunday evening. We had a wonderful time!
- Thanks to all who came to the Eighth Annual Sweetheart Night, which is our special night of honoring all of the married couples of the congregation yesterday. Thanks to all of those who brought food. Also, thanks to all of the ones who helped with this event. We had a good turn-out and a lot of fun! Thanks to all who made it a success!
- Reminders: At Raintree Manor Health and Rehabilitation Center is Dorothy Mayfield in Room 209 and Gary Ward in Room 116. At the National Healthcare Center is Vennie Parsons in Room 207. Please pray for them and visit them.
- The men’s business meeting will be held today at 5:30. All faithful Christian men of the congregation are asked to attend.
- The men of the congregation who are willing are asked to plan to lead some songs tonight during the “Singing Night.”
- This week’s suggested pantry item: Orange Juice
- Happy Birthday to Roger Hensley, who will celebrate this Saturday, February 9, if the Lord wills!
