“THE ONLY SCRIPTURAL REASON FOR DIVORCE” BY: JASON GANN

Hebrews 13:4 says, “Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.” What a wonderful and holy institution that marriage is! It is created by God. In fact, within every marriage, there are three involved, including God, the husband, and the wife. He joins together the man and woman in holy matrimony. Christ says in Matthew 19:6, “Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.” Only God can give the commandments of who can marry and who can divorce. He makes clear that there is only one Scriptural divorce and that is fornication. Matthew 19:9 is where Christ says, “Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.” We learn from this that only the innocent party, who has not committed fornication, can divorce the guilty party, who has committed fornication. Divorce for any other reason is sin!
