“THE IMPORTANCE OF A CHRISTIAN MOTHER IN THE HOME: PART 2”

BY: VICTOR M. ESKEW

Let’s notice the importance of a Christian mother in the home. We must emphasize the adjective “Christian.” A Christian mother is one who has put on Jesus Christ through the act of baptism (Gal. 3:26-27). A Christian mother knows God, Jesus Christ, the Word of God, the church, and the importance of living a Christian life. She has priorities that are different from mothers who are not Christians. She understands the importance of worship, service, Bible study, prayer, good works, morality, and love. She yearns for her home to be in harmony with God’s truth. She does all that she can to make her home a “heaven on earth” for all those who live therein. She makes certain that her “Christianity” is not just a lot of talk. Oh no! Her Christian life is the fabric of her home. Christian mothers who do not understand these things need to do a diligent study of Proverbs 31:10-31. To become a virtuous woman ought to be the mark for which every Christian mother strives.

- Sympathy is extended to the family of Ray Tenpenny, a member of the East End church of Christ. He passed away last Monday, March 13, 2023. Brother Ray served as a preacher and Bible teacher. He filled-in at various congregations in this area and preached for over two years for the Chestnut Grove church of Christ in the past. He also served as an educator in the Warren County School System, at Freed Hardeman University, at Motlow College, and at Tennessee Bible College. We enjoyed having him preach here at various times.
