It is true that the only way to salvation is through the Gospel. The Gospel has been revealed to us by the Holy Spirit in the Bible, the Inspired Word. In this sense, we have been guided into salvation by the Holy Spirit and taught what we must do to be saved. In fact, anything that man knows about God or God’s will comes to us by the revelation of the Holy Spirit in the Scriptures. “But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God” (1 Cor. 2:10-11). The Holy Spirit reveals God’s will to us through the inspired word.

It would be unfortunate for any person to feel that he was so “depraved and spiritually dead” that he had no hope of understanding God’s simple plan of salvation and therefore made no effort to try to understand. That person would be forever spiritually dead waiting for God to reveal what the Holy Spirit revealed long ago through and in and by his holy word.

“TOTAL HEREDITARY DEPRAVITY: A DOCTRINE FROM THE DARK AGES: PART 2”
BY: CARL O. COOPER

Surely everyone has read the passage in Ezekiel 18:20, “The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.” Is this passage not crystal clear proof that no one inherits the sins of Adam?

What about the teaching that we cannot understand or obey the Scriptures until we are indwelt (enlightened) by the Holy Spirit? Many people teach and hold this view. But another check of the Scriptures shows this also to be wrong.

There are many doctrines taught concerning the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. There are many good books on this subject for more information. I would recommend the books by Howard Winters, Rod Rutherford, and Robert Taylor. These are very good sources for more study. But no matter what you believe about the Holy Spirit, whether you believe in a literal personal indwelling or whether you hold that the Holy Spirit dwells in us indirectly through the word, or if you believe that the “gift of the Holy Spirit” is all the blessings given to those who are “in Christ” almost all would agree that the Bible teaches in Acts 2:38 that the “gift of the Holy Spirit” is given AFTER salvation. “Then Peter said to them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.”
