“FRIENDS AND FAMILY HOMECOMING DAY IS HERE!”

BY: JASON GANN

Our Friends and Family Homecoming Day has arrived! It is amazing to think that just last year we were thanking God for 100 years of this congregation serving the Lord. Now, we thank Him for 101 years of serving the Lord. God is blessing the congregation, and we pray that He will continue to do so.

We are thankful that you are here with us today for worship services, Bible study, and a time to break bread together. Whether you are a friend, family member, or a former member, we are thankful you have seen fit to be with us. The Bible says in Proverbs 18:24, “. . .there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.” We are assured that you are that kind of friend. Joshua understood the importance of family when he worked to save his family, saying, “. . . As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord (Joshua 24:15). Most importantly, the greatest of all families is the family of God (Ephesians 3:13-19). If you are not a part of that family, we hope you will be a part of that family here with us, and let us do as Philippians 3:14 says, “I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.”
