“A TIME OF HOMECOMING”

BY: JASON GANN

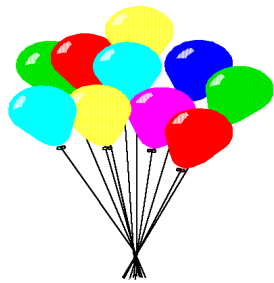

In Psalm 122:1, the Psalmist says, “I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the LORD.” When we think of the house of the Lord today, we should think of the members of the church. In I Timothy 3:15, it is made clear unto us, that the house of God today is the church for in that verse, we have this phrase from God, “the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.” Today, when we speak of the house of the Lord, we are referring not to the Old Testament temple (II Chronicles 3:3), but rather to that which that temple foreshadowed, which is the church. We may then say today that we are glad to assemble with the house of the Lord.

As members of the body of Christ, it should thrill each of our hearts to be with each other. Today is a day when we see those who we may not have seen in a long time, and to see you again and be with you again means so much. It is a day when we see others who we see often, yet to have you with us, still means so much. We, you see, are “knit together in love,” according to Colossians 2:2. This phrase literally means to “cause to coalesce, to join together, and put together.” There is no greater family on the earth than the family of God. Thank you for being with us!
