Serving Since 1923

"And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters (Revelation 14:6-7)."

“VOICE OF A SHUT-IN” BY: BOB SPURLIN

You probably do not know me, but I am a church member just like you. You see I am a “shut-in.” Every Christmas we are visited and presented with a fruit basket, in fact last year we were presented with four. As shut-ins we certainly appreciate the visits, good will, as well as the fruit baskets that are presented to us. However, beloved, there are twelve months in the year. Shut-ins have needs during the whole year and should not be neglected. We enjoy visits (usually short ones); cards, and letters as well as occasional phone calls.

Shut-ins are normally seasoned and mature. Christians who have given much during their earthly pilgrimage. Brethren as a whole have missed a rare opportunity in failing to tap into that valuable resource. They can offer much sage advice and counsel that would benefit the church. Shut-ins love the love and care about the growth of the congregation where they are members. Keep them informed so they may feel they are a part of the on-going activities of the church. God-fearing shut-ins are deeply concerned about the purity of the gospel and seeing that it is preached faithfully in the local congregation where they have devoted their lives. Faithful saints, who are shut-in, are deeply concerned that the church be vigilant in following the “old paths” without fail (Jer. 6:16). It is this writer’s judgment that without those who manifest such vigilance the Lord’s church would be much weaker than what it is currently.

Since shut-ins have been so valuable before, during, and after their confinement; we would all do well to remember them. Be cognizant of them in your daily prayers, communicate with them frequently with cards and visits, but most of all make them feel like they are a part of the local church and not an outsider. Why not resolve to change our attitude toward those who have given so much. It will be a blessing to them and you will receive far more than the value of the time and energy invested.

- We are thankful unto our God for our wonderful Friends and Family Homecoming Day held last Sunday. Thanks to all who helped to make the Homecoming a success in every way. We thank each one who took part in the services. We had a wonderful time studying God’s Word in our Bible Study Class, worshipping Him in our two worship services, and enjoying a fellowship meal together. We had a great time praising God! Thanks to those who prepared food for the fellowship meal. Thanks to each person who invited someone and for each member and visitor who came. We are thankful to have enjoyed having many visitors with us, including family, friends, and former members. We had wonderful attendance with several congregations represented. We enjoyed meditating upon the theme of “Growing Your Faith.” Let us press forward working to make Heaven, our home!
