“THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH: PART 2”

BY: BILL BOYD

Jesus rose from the dead on the first day of the week (Mark 16:1-9; Luke 24). Jesus met with his disciples repeatedly on the first day of the week between his resurrection and ascension (John 20:1,19,26). The following Pentecost came on the first day of the week and on that day the apostles were baptized of the Holy Spirit, the Gospel of the resurrection was first preached, the plan of salvation was revealed, three thousand were baptized for the remission of their sins and became the firstfruits of the Gospel, and the church of Christ was established (Acts 2). Under the teaching of the apostles the church assembled for worship on the first day of the week (Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:2). Since the observance of the Lord’s Supper was to continue until Christ returns (1 Cor. 11:26), the church continues to assemble on the first day “until he come.” Because the first day of the week is associated with the Lord’s supper (1 Cor. 11:17-34) and the Lord’s table (1 Cor. 10:16-17,21) it is believed that John called the first day of the week “the Lord’s day” (Rev. 1:10).

NEWS

- The men of the congregation who are willing are asked to plan to lead some songs tonight during the “Singing Night.”
- A representative from Tennessee Children’s Home plans to be here on Tuesday, May 1, 2018, if the Lord permits. From now until then, the suggest pantry items will be ones that are being requested by those there for their Spring Food Drive. This week’s pantry items suggested are: dill pickles and vegetable oil.

- Please remember to set your clocks one hour ahead this coming Saturday night, as time changes this coming Sunday morning as we enter Daylight Savings Time, if the Lord wills.

Virgin daughters of David,
Were easy to identify;
What did they all wear,
Which their purity did imply?
