“THE IMPORTANCE OF A CHRISTIAN MOTHER IN THE HOME: PART 1”

BY: VICTOR M. ESKEW

The societal influences in the US have taught a different picture of the home than the one presented in the pages of God’s Word. Two people no longer have to get married. If they do get married, they do not have to marry the same sex. If they get married, they do not have to stay married for life. If a home is established, there are no basic roles to be found therein. In fact, we are told that men are weak and the woman is really the strength of the home. Children no longer have to be part of a home. There are many ways, including abortion, to keep from having children. If children are part of the home, they wield a lot of power. Parents who try to train, control, and discipline their children are looked upon as abusers. Today, State (government) wants to be the dominate agent in the child’s life until he/she reaches adulthood.

Christians are battling against the culture when it comes to the home. We are told our Biblical values are irrelevant and out-of-touch with the 21st Century. Christians, however, cannot allow culture to win. Paul exhorts us with these words in Romans 12:2, “and be not conformed to this world...” The word “conformed” means “to be made fashioned like” and “to be formed into a pattern.” Paul exhorts children of God, saying: “Do not let the world mold you” and continues with these words: “...but ye be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.” Our minds need to be “renewed” by the Word of God. The word “renewed” means “to be renovated.” Thayer tells us that it means “a complete change for the better.” Yes, Christians must go to the Good Book to learn how to live. Regardless of the mold the world seeks to pour us into, we must rebel against it. We must continue to be true to the precious truth (instructions) found in God’s Word. We must allow God’s Word to transform us into something much better than the world has to offer.

The Bible teaches that it is important to have both a father and a mother in the home. When God created the home, he put a father and mother therein (Gen. 2:18-24). He gave each of them different roles in order for the home to function smoothly and in order for children to receive what they need to develop properly into adults. Both fathers and mothers need to understand, appreciate, and commit to their roles in the home. If they do not, the home will not be what God intends for it to be.
