“WONDERFUL GENEROSITY”

BY: JASON GANN

We of the Campaign church of Christ are very thankful to R. W. Comer for the very generous donation made to the congregation from his trust fund. This will help the congregation here so much along with many congregations throughout Tennessee and Kentucky, who have also received these funds. Robert Wickliffe Comer lived from 1860 to 1944, having been born one year prior to the Civil War, and having passed away during the days of World War II, yet his good works continue here on the earth. He was a successful businessman as head of the Washington Manufacturing Company, but most importantly, he served faithfully as a Christian, working as a Gospel preacher and Elder.

We see in this great man, wonderful generosity. II Corinthians 9:7 says, “Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.” Happy givers. This is what we must be. We should be happy to give as we have been prospered on the first day of the week (I Corinthians 16:2). Jesus says in Matthew 5:42, “Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.”

Friends, let us follow the great example of R. W. Comer, and do what we can to be cheerful givers. We must be willing to give of our time and money to help the Cause of Christ. Let us show wonderful generosity.

If the Lord wills, next week an article detailing more about the life of R. W. Comer by H. Leo Boles will be published in this bulletin.
