“EVEN SO, COME, LORD JESUS.”
BY: JASON GANN

“Even so, come, Lord Jesus.” This is the last statement in the Holy Bible. It was said by John, an Apostle of the Lord, by inspiration of the Holy Spirit. This was in reply to what had earlier been said by Christ.

In Matthew 24:1-34, we learn about how that Christ would come to destroy Jerusalem by working providentially to direct the Roman Army to do so, then in Matthew 24:35-51, we are told about Christ’s Coming to judge the whole world on the Judgment Day. The Judgment Day is to come.

When Christ returns, the faithful will go to Heaven, while the unfaithful will go to Hell (Matthew 25:46). How many of us are living in such a way as to be able to say, “Even so, come, Lord Jesus.” Let us live each day in such a way that we could utter these words daily. A greater home awaits for the faithful! The Judgment is coming! We do not know when. Let us be ready!

We are appreciative to him, and though being dead, his good works continue here on the earth.
