“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other
as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

Serving Since 1923

“Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth: But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also (Matthew 5:38-39).”

“A LOVE FOR THE TRUTH: PART 2” BY: BOB SPURLIN

How would Peter or Paul preach today? Would they simply slap people on the back, shake their hands, and then declare some philosophical jargon? Most Bible students know better. If we truly love the truth then joy will soar in our hearts as the spoken word is preached and taught. A love of the truth will cause us to crave and hunger for it like a fine meal (Matt. 5:6). Solomon said, “Buy the truth and sell it not...” (Prov. 23:23). The truth should be the single pursuit of us all and no price is too high to secure it (Matt. 13:45-46). A love for the truth will cause us to be submissive to it (James 4:7-8; Matt.7:21). Jesus with great clarity, said, “If ye love me, ye will keep my commandments” (John 14:15).

A love for the truth will also cause one to live it to the uttermost. There can be no greater challenge to our love of the truth than living it daily. Paul said, “For me to live is Christ, but to die is gain...” (Phil. 1:21). Jesus was the personification of truth and truly exemplified how we should conduct our lives. Luke writes his treatise to Theophilus and said, “...concerning all that Jesus began both to do and to teach” (Acts 1:1). Note the perfect harmony in our Lord's life; he both lived what he taught and taught what he lived. The sheer complimenting of our religion with how we live is a necessary prerequisite if we love the truth. Paul said, “Only let your conversation (manner of life) be worthy of the gospel of Christ” (Phil. 1:27).

Friend, a lover of the truth is not only the purpose of our being, but faithfully adhering to the truth (John 8:32) will be rewarded with everlasting life.

“A kiss in the garden,
Twas not one of love;
With it I betrayed,
The Lord from above,”
says one of the Twelve Apostles.
Who is this?
