“BLESSED ARE THEY THAT HEAR THE WORD AND KEEP IT: PART 1”
BY: ROGER CAMPBELL

As Jesus was teaching on one occasion, a woman spoke up to say that His mother was blessed because her womb bore Jesus and she nursed Him (Luke 11:27). The Master’s response to that woman’s statement put things in perspective: “Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it” (11:28).

The word “blessed” means one who is happy. In God’s sight, a happy person is one who hears and keeps His word.

From the creation of the first humans, it always has been God’s will for people to learn His will and keep it. That was true for Adam and Eve. It was true for Deborah, David, and Daniel. It was true for Ezekiel, Esther, and Ezra. It likewise was true for Andrew, Agabus, and Aquila.

It is true for every person living today as well. In our society (compared to days gone by), less emphasis is put on learning and following the Bible. That sad however, reality does not change what the Christ said: “Blessed are they that hear the word of God and keep it.”

As unthinkable as it sounds today among some who identify themselves as Christians, there is not a premium placed on learning and heeding what God says. Yet, Jesus’ words still are true: “Blessed are they that hear the word of God and keep it.”
