“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other
as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

Serving Since 1923

“But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you (Matthew 6:33).”

“LET NO MAN DESPISE THY YOUTH (I TIMOTHY 4:12): PART 2” BY: BRIAN C. ADKINS

In what ways should young people be examples? First, Paul said that Timothy must be an example IN WORD. Matthew 12:37 reads, “For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.” This is a real danger for young people (and older ones, as well). James has much to say about the tongue. He wrote that we need to bridle our tongues (Jam. 3:2-4); that the tongue is “a fire” (Jam. 3:6); that the tongue is difficult to control (Jam. 3:6). Earlier, these words can be found in the epistle of James: “be slow to speak” (Jam. 1:19). The fact is, too many people get their mouths in motion before they get their minds in gear! And so, young people, be careful with your words.

Second, Paul instructed Timothy to be an example IN CONVERSATION. This meant that he was to be an example in the way in which he conducted his life. People are watching us every day. Let’s make sure that the way we live will encourage others to come to Christ (cf., Gal. 2:20).

Paul revealed that Timothy should be an example IN LOVE. We must love God supremely. He must come first in everything. He loved us even when we were unlovable (Rom. 5:8). Young people must learn to love themselves. You are very important! God invested His only begotten Son in YOU! Jesus went to Calvary with YOU on His mind! Too many people fail to appreciate their own worth. So many feel like there is no hope for them. This often leads to the tragedies of alcohol, drugs and even suicide. We need to be loved and wanted. When we love God first, then that should affect our relationship to our fellow man. The Bible states that we must “love thy neighbour as thyself” (Mat. 22:39). If I do not love myself very much, how will I react to my neighbor? Young person, be an example of one who loves God, yourself and others.
