"A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other

as We Shine as Lights unto the World"

Serving Since 1923

"The elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth; For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever (II John 1-2)."

“THE NEED TO BLUSH”

BY: JIMMY CLARK

“Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD” (Jer. 6:15).

One of the indicators that a conscience is sensitive to sin is blushing. A good conscience takes no pride in sin. When sinful things do not produce a sorrowful reaction in the life of a person, especially a Christian, then something is seriously wrong. Jeremiah spoke to people who had no remorse over the abominable things taking place in and among them. Without a sense of guilt and shame, men do not see the need for help and correction. Think about some things today that demand the need to blush.

DRESS

The first recorded reaction of man when sin entered the world was shame. “And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons” (Gen. 3:7). The consciences of Adam and Eve were very sensitive. Though their apparel was inadequate, they did not see the need to be covered. Consider this in light of Paul’s words to Timothy. “In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array” (1 Tim. 2:9). Underscore the word, shame-facedness. Shamefacedness is the attitude that Adam and Eve had. When this attitude declines, modesty also declines. There is no doubt that the promiscuousness of today has had a vast influence on modest dress. The prevalence of immodesty does not show God’s approval of such. Modesty is a moral issue and morals have not changed from the beginning of time. When a person wears little more than his undergarments and does not blush, then he or she is in the same state as those in Jeremiah’s day.

DIALOGUE

There was a day in which vulgarity and profanity were offensive and disgusting to people. Today, one can hardly go through a day without hearing something that is base and immoral. There is a danger that Christians might be calloused toward bad language and lack of taking the proper stand because such is commonplace in society. The light of some has greatly dimmed or even been extinguished because of participation in worldly conversation. James said, “Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be” (Jam. 8:10). Paul wrote, “Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers” (Eph. 4:29). The words of one’s mouth declare the purity of one’s heart. A Christian finds nothing amusing in language that promotes wickedness.

DEMEANOR

The activities of today must be viewed with discretion. One needs only to read Judges 17:6 to see what happens when people do that which is right in their own eyes. (Note: Continued on Page 3)

Dancing, drinking, mixed swimming and the like are not activities which Christians desire to participate in. It is no wonder that Paul told Timothy, “Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity” (1 Tim. 4:12). There is a great need that people in the church be examples to each other. One can never expect to make an impact on the immorality of the world when members of the church do not blush over ungodly activities. The Christian life is one of decency and honor. May all seek to develop a conscience that is always ashamed of sin.
