“WHEN GOD DECIDES ENOUGH IS ENOUGH: PART 1” BY: ROGER CAMPBELL

Never forget this declaration of Jehovah: “As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked: but that the wicked turn from his way and live...” (Ezek. 33:11). That statement was made during the time that a number of the Israelites of the Southern Kingdom/Judah were living in captivity in Babylon.

Let’s go back and consider what led to Judah’s fall and captivity. In 2 Chronicles 36:14-16 we read that God’s people, including the chief priests, imitated the abominations of the Gentiles and polluted God’s house (36:14). Their action was inexcusable. You see, God had held out His hand of mercy to Judah for a long time, giving them chance after chance to repent and turn back to Him. The people refused. Here is the narrative of 36:15,16: “And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes [early], and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place: But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no remedy.”

Look at the scenario which preceded God bringing Judah down: there was mercy, messengers, and mockery. The Lord sent His messengers to speak to the Israelites. Those messengers were guided by God’s Spirit to speak just what Judah needed to hear. It was God’s compassion/mercy that caused Him to continue to reach out to His people. Zephaniah, Jeremiah, and other prophets were a blessing to the nation as they proclaimed a “thus saith the Lord.” It was in God’s heart to spare them, not destroy them.

Alas, Judah’s response to God’s mercy was stupidity. The people mocked God’s messengers and despised His words (36:16). No one can do that before Jehovah God and be guiltless in His sight!
