"A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other as We Shine as Lights unto the World"

Serving Since 1923

"Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love (II John 3)."

“AN ANCHOR FOR THE SOUL”

BY: ROGER DILL

Today men often want a sensate religion.. I have heard people say how great it would be to have lived in Moses’ day and seen the miracle of the dividing of the waters. Such is ingratitude for our far greater blessings of faith than those poor ignorant souls who lived in the starlight-moonlight age of God’s grace enjoyed.

On occasion we have heard people long to see Jesus. “If only I could have seen Jesus in person I would believe.” That is highly doubtful. The majority of those who did see Him cried “crucify him, crucify him.” You see, He did not satisfy their sensate “expectations of the Messiah. The prophet may have predicted such when he wrote, “he hath no form nor comeliness” (Isa. 53:2).

The Bible teaches clearly the means of our conviction of personal security. As a little boy several friends and I once walked through a cemetery on a moonless, cloudy, windy night. We talked and whistled loudly, but each one knew he and the others were scared to death. I have attended funerals where ignorant men would declare the sure knowledge that Mr. or Mrs. so and so were now in the arms of Jesus. There is a sweetness about that, but the facts were I and many in the audience knew that person had never professed faith in Jesus Christ nor even obeyed His command of baptism. Whistling in the dark may make you feel better, but it doesn’t offer you much security

John records Jesus’ prayer in John 17:3 where eternal life is predicated upon our knowing God and Jesus Christ whom He had sent. Paul said, “I know whom I have believed” (2 Tim. 1:12). The apostle John having penned Jesus’ prayer above gave us the rest of the formula in his first epistle. There he tells us “hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him. He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked” (1 John 2:3-6).

Upon this our knowing and our hope rests. Hope, as an expression of our security and salvation is not an expression of doubt or unbelief. Christian hope is the most powerful expression of our desire and expectation. I hope to go to Heaven and I will not be ashamed of that Bible Hope. If we use the word hope as a substitute for a “wish” without firm foundation for that “wish,” we are misusing a most explicit Bible Word and principle.
