“THE CHURCH ASSEMBLES FOR WORSHIP: PART 2” BY: GARLAND ROBINSON

The church gathers themselves together at a specific location (Acts 14:27; 4:31; 20:7-8; 1 Cor. 5:4; 11:17,18,20,33,34; 14:23,26; Heb. 10:25). Call it a tradition or custom if you will, but it is a tradition/custom ordained of God. How else would they know to do such? Exhortation is offered again and again for the church to assemble. Paul sought to join himself to the church at Jerusalem (cf. Acts 9:26). Why? It wasn't because it was a place of recreation and social events. It was a place to collectively worship and fellowship with God and saints of “like precious faith.” It was to do that which had been revealed by the Holy Spirit. It was a tradition ordained by the apostles (1 Cor. 11:18; 14:23). There are traditions of men, they are condemned (Col. 2:8); and, there are traditions of God, they are commanded for Christians, the church, to keep (2 Thess. 3:6).
