“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

Serving Since 1923

“And of some have compassion, making a difference: And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh (Jude 22-23).”

“TITUS: PART 2” BY: WAYNE COATS

A careful study of the three chapters which comprise the book of Titus will demonstrate plainly that there is both positive and negative teaching which must be done. Those people who can only endure the positive approach will find the material in Titus extremely dull and of little value. We need to be looking for young men who can be trusted. We need young preachers who have common sense sufficiently to help with the solutions rather than creating the problems.

Titus refused to take advantage of the Corinthians (2 Cor. 12:18). He was the kind of young man who could complete an assignment (8:6). His work took him to Dalmatia, to Corinth, Crete, and other places. Titus was the right man, for the right job, at the right place.
