“TAKE THE TIME EACH DAY TO STUDY” BY: JASON GANN

I encourage you to make time each day to study the Holy Bible. Psalm 1 teaches that the person is blessed who does this. Psalm 1 teaches us, “Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.” You will never regret meditating upon the Word of God each day. If you want to be blessed, be a daily Bible reader. Delight in the law of God. Meditate in it day and night. By so doing, you will be strong.

II Timothy 2:15 says, “Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the worth of truth.” Studying God’s Word helps us to grow. II Peter 3:18 teaches us that we are to, “. . . grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.” We must give attention to reading God’s Word. I Timothy 4:13 lays forth the principle of the need to give attention to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

In studying God’s Word, let us be sure to not only study, but obey what we study. James 1:22 still says, “But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.” James 2:10 says, “For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.” Those who do not obey God will not have Heaven as a home in the end (II Thessalonians 1:7-10). Let us do our part to take the time each day to study the Word of God, and obey it.
