“HE PLEASSED GOD” BY: GARRY BARNES

There is a man named Enoch in the Bible that is a unique person. All that we know about him is found in five verses of the Bible (Gen. 5:21-24; Heb. 11:5). He was the father of Methuselah, the oldest man to ever live according to the Bible. But, this fact is not what makes him unique.

There are two characteristics that make him stand out. It is said of him that he “walked with God,” and “he had this testimony, that he pleased God.” The only other person that was said to have “walked with God” is Noah (Gen. 6:9). Abraham was called a “Friend of God” (2 Chr. 20:7; Jam. 2:23). David was said to be a “a man after his [God’s] own heart” (1 Sam. 13:14; Acts 13:22). Enoch because he “walked with God” and had the testimony that “he please God” was one of two Bible characters that did not die (Heb. 11:5; Gen. 5:24). Elijah was the other person to not see death (2 Kin. 2:11).

What enables one to walk with God? He must be in agreement with God. Amos 3:3 asks “Can two walk together, except they be agreed?” Also, the context of Hebrews tells us Enoch was a man of faith. Verse five begins, “By faith Enoch was translated.” He, by faith, was translated because he walked with (pleased) God. Much may not be said about us in the annuals of man, but how wonderful it will be if it can be said of us: “They had the testimony that they pleased God!” Today we can walk with God spiritually by agreeing with Him in obeying His will. Are you walking with God?
