“REPENTANCE BEFORE FAITH?: PART 4”

BY: FLAVIL NICHOLS

(4) The last text where REPENTANCE and FAITH are mentioned together, is Mark 1:15: “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.” Advocates of the doctrine under review sometimes insist: “This text does not say, ‘Believe ye the gospel, and repent.’” This was the preaching of John the Immerser, and was to the Jews, who already believed in God. They—who accepted the Old Testament Scriptures—were required to repent of their sins against God, in whom they had previously believed! They were also required to BELIEVE THE GOSPEL later, when it would be preached in its fulness. Hear the apostle Paul regarding John’s labors: “John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus” (Acts 19:4). Thus both their repentance and baptism preceded their belief in Christ Jesus!
