Biblically speaking, one that is a proper candidate for baptism is also one that is a sinner. Simon Peter, acting as Jesus' spokesman, told the Jews assembled on the Day of Pentecost to repent and be baptized (Acts 2:38). The message of Acts 2:38 shows that repentance must proceed baptism, and at the same time it also shows the purpose of baptism: "for the remission of sins."

In order for babies to be classified as "sinners," and thus in need of repentance and baptism to wash away sins (Acts 22:16), then it must be true that they have in some way violated God's law. This is so because the Bible defines sin as "lawlessness" or "transgression of the law" (1 John 3:4). Only those that have broken God's law are "sinners." Pee-wee children may be "guilty" of a lot of things, but breaking or transgressing the law of God is not one of them! Therefore, babies are not sinners, and because they are not sinners, they are not proper candidates for baptism. "Why doesn't the church of Christ baptize babies?" That is a good and fair question. One thought that comes to mind is this: Why should it?

PLAN OF SALVATION

- Hear (Romans 10:17)
- Believe (Mark 16:16)
- Repent (Acts 17:30)
- Confess (Matthew 10:32)

“WHY DOESN'T THE CHURCH OF CHRIST BAPTIZE BABIES?: PART 2”

BY: ROGER D. CAMPBELL

Furthermore, babies are not proper candidates for water baptism. That is strike number two against the baptizing of infants. Biblically speaking, one that is a proper candidate for water baptism is one that believes in Jesus and the Gospel (Mark 16:16; Acts 8:37). Infants are unable to possess such faith, thus they cannot be baptized scripturally. (Note: Continued on Page 4)
