“And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves: For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you (Luke 22:17-20).”

“TEN WAYS TO RESIST TEMPTATION: PART 1”

BY: JASON PATRICK HILBURN

Anyone who calls himself a “Christ“ian is claiming to follow the teachings and example of Christ, the one who never sinned (1 Peter 2:21-22). We could not be saved without Him (Matt. 26:28; Heb. 2:9; 5:9), but there is also a sense in which we must “save ourselves” (Acts 2:40). None of us deserve salvation, but we must be faithful to God to obtain salvation and keep it (Matt. 7:21; Phil. 2:12; 1 Peter 1:22; 2 Peter 2:20-22; 1 John 1:6-2:6; Rev. 2:10). A critical part of faithfully following Christ is resisting temptations (James 4:7-10). Though we have all sinned in the past (Rom. 3:23), God commands us to be holy and to do our best to live by His Word (Matt. 4:4; 1 Peter 1:15-16). To do so is described as a war: “...abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul” (1 Peter 2:11). When a child of God stops fighting this war against sin, he dies spiritually (James 1:15; 5:19-20; 1 John 1:6-2:6). Therefore, we must resist!

Everyone is tempted by something (1 Cor. 10:13), and even Jesus was tempted in every way we are, but without sin (Heb. 4:15). There is nothing wrong with being tempted, but choosing to go beyond temptation into sin is deadly (James 1:13-15). In fact, sin can be just as deadly after converting to Christ as before conversion. The account of Simon the sorcerer becoming lost in sin after his baptism/conversion is one of many sobering passages teaching that (Acts 8:20-24), and most warnings regarding sin in the New Testament were addressed to baptized believers, not atheists or pagans. Sin can be eternally deadly to anyone, but God has promised to bless children of God who resist temptation: “Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him” (James. 1:12; cf. 1:13-27). With all this in mind, following are ten ways those who love God can resist temptation:

1. Resist by Remembering God’s Word. Followers of Jesus should do what Jesus did when He was tempted — use the Word of God, the Sword of the Spirit (Eph. 6:17). Matthew chapter four records Satan tempting Jesus three times, and Jesus replied each time with “It is written.” The psalmist wrote, “Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee” (Psalms 119:11). Knowledge of God’s Word enables a person to distinguish truth from error, right from wrong, righteousness from wickedness, and one who regularly studies and meditates upon God’s Word is much more equipped to fight temptation (Hosea 4:6; Eph. 4:14; Heb. 5:12-14).
