“PAUL WILMOTH (1944-2021): PART 2”

BY: DAVID HILL

Will he be missed? You better believe it. More than anyone will know right now, because the work he did often went unnoticed. He was an anchor for the Northeast congregation. Many mission trips and other good works could not have happened without him. He served 30 years with Malcolm Hill and made it possible for brother Hill to travel for TBC. Hill said often, “You can always count on brother Paul.” That statement was also made regarding his doing what was right. If brother Paul knew the truth he was going to follow it wherever it led.

A servant, family man, friend, brother and soldier of the Cross has fallen in spiritual Israel. His work and example will not soon be forgotten by family, colleagues, and friends (Rev. 14:13). As he was losing his battle with cancer, he stated several times in recent days that he was ready to go and be with the Lord. Confident in the promises of God, he is at home at rest, realizing the reward for which he has worked all his life. May God’s blessings be upon those who wait: his wife Shirley, their children and grandchildren, his brother Carl, and upon his Christian family. The thread has been broken along with the “silver cord loosened” (Ecc. 12:6).
