“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

Serving Since 1923

“Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord (Philemon 20).”

“TRAINING CHILDREN IN PEW PACKERS CLASS”

BY: JASON GANN

Deuteronomy Chapter 6, verses 4 through 9 say, “Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD: And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes. And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates.” We see from these verses, the importance of being training up children. They are the future. This responsibility is upon the shoulders of the parents.

Proverbs 22:6 says, “Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.” Ephesians 6:4 says, “And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.” Mothers are called upon to “guide the house” in I Timothy 5:14 under the headship of the father and husband, Ephesians 5:23. While this is the responsibility of parents, we know that grandparents can have a big role in helping children, also as we see in Timothy’s life with his grandmother, Lois, II Timothy 1:5. Also, the church can have a big role in helping parents to raise up children in the way they should go by providing proper Bible instruction and examples to the young people for the church is to be pillar and ground of the truth, I Timothy 3:15, and to be a light unto the world by providing proper examples for the young people and older people alike.

We understand that if time continues here on the earth, then one day we will no longer be here and the little ones now will be leading in the church. They will be preachers, preachers’ wives, teachers, Elders, Elders’ wives, Deacons, Deacons’ wives, songleaders, fellowship meal preparers, and so forth. We want to do our part to help them every way we can. In view of this, we are delighted to begin a Pew Packers Class to be held between the Sunday First Worship Service and the regular Sunday Morning Bible Study Classes to prepare our young people for their Bible Classes. It has been several years since the congregation here has had a Pew Packers Class. It will be a time of singing songs and learning more about the Bible. We encourage you to invite your children and grandchildren, along with others, to sit on the front pews during this time as we learn more about the Lord together!
