“TEN WAYS TO RESIST TEMPTATION: PART 5”

BY: JASON PATRICK HILBURN

10. Resist by Remembering the Reward. The greatest place of all awaits the faithful! No more pain, sickness, sorrow, or death! Heaven is where God wants everyone to be (1 Tim. 2:3-4; 2 Peter 3:9). In fact, God wants us in Heaven so badly that He paid the greatest price to make it possible — sending His only Son to endure the suffering and death that we deserve. He did not have to do that (Rom. 5:8-10). We did not do anything to deserve it, and we never will deserve it (Luke 17:10; Eph. 2:8). Even so, blessings beyond what we can currently understand are awaiting the faithful. Since a relatively small amount of information about Heaven is revealed in the Bible, it seems that God is waiting to surprise His faithful in ways not yet fully revealed. Consider this: The God who created this incredible, beautiful universe, the God who gave us the ability to feel emotions such as deep love and tremendous joy, has even better things prepared for us! Just to be in the presence of God will be greater than anything man can experience in this universe. Christians should be extremely excited about going there!

All of this should motivate men to love God and serve Him faithfully, but if a properly baptized child of God does commit a sin, he should immediately repent and pray to the Father for forgiveness in Jesus' name (John 16:23; Acts 8:22-24; 1 John 1:7-9). It would be tragic if children of God stopped taking sin seriously. Resisting temptation must be the Christian's fight until death, and, like Paul and so many others, through Christ we can prevail! (Rom. 8:31-39; Phil. 4:13; 2 Tim. 4:6-8; Heb. 11).
