- “Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling” (Phil. 2:12; cf. Acts 2:40; 1 Peter 1:22; Jude 21; Rev. 2:2, 9, 10).
- “Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest...” (Heb. 4:11; cf. 6:10; 1 Thess. 1:3).

God has spoken plainly, but Satan does not want anyone obeying God or working for God, and he has deceived many through popular preachers and their numerous followers.

Friends, there is work being done by Christ today, there is “work” (action) required to become a Christian, all Christians should be busy working for the Lord, and one day we will all be held accountable for the work we did or refused to do (Matt. 25:14-46).

“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other as We Shine as Lights unto the World”
Serving Since 1923

“Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch (Acts 11:22).”

“DID CHRIST DO ALL THE WORK ON THE CROSS?: PART 4”

BY: JASON PATRICK HILBURN

Christ commands His followers to be busy working. Inspired men like Paul wrote the commandments of the Lord (1 Cor. 14:37). Paul said the only thing that will “avail” us is “faith which worketh by love” (Gal. 5:6). Again, these are not works of the Law of Moses (Gal. 5:1 4; Eph. 2:8 16), but working God’s righteous commands of the New Covenant (Acts 10:34-35; Col. 2:11 17; Heb. 7:11 14; 10:8-9). True love for God necessitates obedience: “For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous” (1 John 5:3; cf. John 14:15; 15:14). The Bible teaches that anyone who claims to be a Christian without obedience is lying: “And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him” (1 John 2:3-4). “They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him...” (Titus 1:16; cf. 2:11 14). James said that “faith without works is dead” (James 2:26; cf. 2:14 25). The New Testament repeatedly emphasizes the need for Christians to be busy working for their Lord after they initially become saved (1 Cor. 15:58; Gal. 6:9-10; Eph. 2:10; Titus 2:11 14), and how does the idea of “no work for men today” harmonize with verses like these?

- ...In every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him” (Acts 10:34 35).
- Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord” (1 Cor. 15:58).
- “Wherefore we labor, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men...” (2 Cor. 5:9 11).
