“TRUTH (ROMANS 1:25)”

BY: PAUL WILMOTH

In describing the Gentile world of his day, Paul, among many other things, stated that they “changed the truth of God into a lie” (Rom. 1:25). In Zechariah 8:19, “The Lord of hosts” said “Love the truth and peace.” Truth has always been important. Isaiah warned, “Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!” (Isa. 5:20). He also tells us that some in his day who did not love the truth requested of the prophets, “Prophecy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophecy deceits” (Isa. 30:10). And of the Jews this observation was made relative to the truth: “For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them” (Acts 28:27). Some allow the “god of this world” to “blind their eyes” to the truth (II Cor. 4:3-4). Paul said the “time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables” (II Tim. 4:3-4).

It is obvious from these scriptures that truth really is vitally important. The Truth separates (Matt. 10:34-36), makes free (John 8:32), can be known (John 8:32), makes enemies (Gal. 4:16), can be held back (Rom. 1:18), can be resisted (II Tim. 3:8), and can be obeyed (I Peter 1:22).

The truth is also called: The Gospel, (Rom. 1:16, Gal. 1:6ff), The Faith (Jude 3), one faith (Eph. 4:5), this doctrine, (II John 9), The scriptures (Acts 17:11), The word, (II Tim. 4:2), sound doctrine (II Tim. 4:3), and the doctrine (I John 4:16).

Now back to our original text. Why would anyone desire to change the truth of God into a lie? Strange as it seems, millions of folks are still doing that very same thing today. In fact our parents, in Eden, were led into sin because the devil did exactly that. And he did it by adding only one word! Any additions, subtractions, or substitutions are forbidden when dealing with the divine, inspired word of the most high God. See Revelation 22:18-19. Some “wrest the scriptures unto their own destruction” (II Pet. 3:16). Any adjustment to the truth automatically changes the truth into a lie; and the devil was “a liar from the beginning” and “the father of all liars” (John 8:44). All who “wrest the scriptures”, all who “change the truth of God into a lie” become liars themselves. Paul’s statement in Romans 3:4 applies to every man who attempts this. He said, “Let God be true but every man a liar.” Tamper with the truth—to any degree—and you are excluded from Heaven and assigned a part “in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone” (Rev. 21:8, 27).

Let me exhort one and all to see the importance of truth. “Buy the truth and sell it not” is still excellent advice that will pay huge dividends (Prov. 23:23).
