“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other
as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

Serving Since 1923

“For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls (I Peter 2:25).”

“USE OR LOSE: PART 1” BY: GUY N. WOODS

Most speakers and writers have certain favorite expressions to which they frequently give utterance and which come to be recognizable characteristics of their style. An analysis of the words of our Lord shows that He, too, was given to the repetition of sentiments one of which was: whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath (Mat. 13:12).

This expression, or one similar in form, occurs several times in the books of the gospel, and in a variety of circumstances: (1) In the foregoing instance, it was used to justify parabolic teaching; (2) twice He utilized it in teaching about what and how we are to hear; (3) it occurs also in connection with the condemnation of the one-talent man and still farther; (4) in the parable of the pounds.

It is paradoxical but, nonetheless, a fundamental law of life governing every aspect thereof. It is the Law of Atrophy. That which we use we have, all else we only appear to have (Luke 8:18). The principle is: Use or lose! The unused manna of the wilderness wanderings bred worms and stank; food, when long stored, spoils; water not stirred becomes stagnant; and, muscles not exercised wither. The principle finds illustration in all the affairs of life. Skillful surgeons, talented artists, acute businessmen remain so only by their constant use of their faculties and neglect leads to loss of abilities formerly possessed.

Through mental and moral exercise, we keep our sensibilities of right and wrong strong (Heb. 5:14); the alternative is moral stagnation (Eph. 4:17-19). The Greeks excelled in mental and intellectual development in the ancient world but because they had not “learned Christ” (Eph. 4:20), they were in a state of moral decay.

To this sentiment the Lord directed attention in His figure of the fruitless tree and barren branches.

And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire (Mat. 3:10). I am the vine, ye are the branches... If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned (John 15:5-6).

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Obeying God's Word

Hebrews 5:9 says about Christ, “And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;”. Faith and obedience are required for salvation.

In fact, the only true faith is an obedient faith (James 2:24)!
