"A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other as We Shine as Lights unto the World"

Serving Since 1923

"Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full (II John 12)."

“ATTITUDES TOWARD TRUTH: PART 4” BY: ROY J. HEARN

We must receive the truth with unprejudiced minds. God’s Word is the seed of the kingdom (Luke 8:11). Hearts of men are represented by the soil. The one who will not open his heart to truth is the wayside hearer. He allows Satan to turn him from the truth (Mat. 13:19). The good ground hearer is the one who hears, receives the truth (seed) into his heart (soil) and keeps it and brings forth fruit. Open the door of your heart (Rev. 3:20). It may be costly, even to separation from family and friends, but the sacrifice must be made if necessary, to be saved (Luke 14:26-28). Hold to the truth and be faithful unto death (Rev. 2:10).

Must believe and obey the truth. Belief alone is insufficient. The devils believed and trembled, but were not saved (Jam. 2:19). Some believed in Christ, but were afraid to confess Him (John 12:42-43), therefore, were denied by Christ (Mat. 10:33). Faith only does not save, but faith that leads to obedience does (Jam. 1:22; 2:24). One is purified when he obeys the truth (1 Pet. 1:22). Moses believed in God; but, he was not allowed to enter the promised land because of disobedience (Num. 20:10-12). Thus, we see believe is used in two senses: to give mental assent to God’s existence and in the fullest sense—obey God. The latter saves, the former does not.

Conclusion

In order to be saved one must obey God’s truth (2 The. 1:7-9). Knowing the terror of the Lord, we persuade men to obey Him (2 Cor. 5:11). Believe, repent, confess, and be baptized today.
