“CHURCH ATTENDANCE STRENGTHENS THE HOME: PART 1”

BY: GARLAND ROBINSON

Church attendance is essential in obeying God. It is unthinkable for one who has embraced the Lord's Way to forsake even one of the assemblies of the saints. The Bible is clear regarding this sin and the severity of it. Hebrews 10:24-26 says, "And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching. For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins ."

Far too often, members of the Lord's house see church attendance as an unpleasant obligation. It is often viewed like bad tasting medicine, something that is not enjoyed but necessary for one's health. What a shame such individuals have so little faith! I'm convinced they do not see the severity of sin and the eternal destruction it brings.

To be able to worship the God of heaven, the creator and sustainer of all living, to commune with brethren of like precious faith, is a blessing enjoyed by far too few -- even among those who have "named the name of Christ." This article will explore just a few of the blessings and rewards of faithful church attendance.

Faithful church attendance strengthens not only the individual but entire families as well. One evidence of this is seen in the number of couples that have happy marriages. Statistics prove that families who worship together are far more likely to remain together. Rare are the occasions where such homes are broken and end in divorce. When families are constantly instructed in the way of the Lord, it becomes harder for them to rebel against that which is right. The prodigal son removed himself from family worship and influence and fell into the depths of sin and folly. Only after returning home did he once again enjoy the pleasure and company of those who truly loved him (Luke 15:11-24). Lois and Eunice brought Timothy up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord (2 Tim. 1:5; Eph. 6:1-4).

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Bible School Is So Important!

We are thankful for the Educational Program of the church. There is no greater subject to study than the Holy Bible. English is important. Math is important. Science is important. Social studies is important. The most important subject though is the Bible. Make sure you are studying it every day. Bring your children and yourselves every Sunday morning and Wednesday night to study with us. Remember, the Bible equips us for every good work (II Timothy 3:16-17).
