“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

Serving Since 1923

“Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God (Matthew 5:8).”

“AN OPEN DOOR”

BY: G. K. WALLACE

“Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you” (Mat. 7:7). Are we asking, seeking, and knocking? Our prospect for success in the Lord’s work is as bright as the promises of God. We should keep our minds more on the resources than on the difficulties. Let us attempt great things for God and expect great things. All great forward movements have been brought about by men who trusted the uncharted and unknown. Think of the work of Christopher Columbus, the Wright brothers, and Thomas Edison. Paul was not afraid to go to Rome with the Gospel of God. We have a promise of victory. The church will stand as long as the world lasts (16:18).

The messenger may be imprisoned, but not the Message. The Seed of the Kingdom is to grow silently and irresistibly. The door is open and God will answer prayer. His promises are conditional. Victory is conditioned on faith (1 John 5:4). Help from God is conditioned upon love and obedience. “If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him” (John 14:23). Prayer is conditioned on doing the will of God (1 John 5:14). If we do our part, we need not be afraid that God will fail in His promises.
