"A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other as We Shine as Lights unto the World"
 Serving Since 1923

"O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our maker (Psalm 95:6)."

“YOU ARE BEING READ LIKE A LETTER!”

BY: JASON GANN

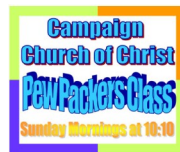

Revelation 1:3 states, “Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.” Here we find a blessing pronounced upon both the hearers and listeners of the prophecy of this great book of Revelation. The principle is laid forth that all who would read and hear the reading of the Holy Scriptures would be blessed. You see, the Word of God is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness. The Holy Scriptures equip us for every good work (II Timothy 3:16-17). We would do well to give our attention to them and read them every day, meditating upon them day and night (II Timothy 2:15, Psalm 1, I Timothy 4:13).

If we will devote our lives to a study of the Word of God daily, and then keep what the Word says, then we will be blessed. Our lives will become more like Christ’s life every day. When we live as we ought and take in the words of the Spirit, then we will always be the epistle of Christ and thereby cause more to turn to Him. II Corinthians 3:2-3 says, “Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men: Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.” Remember, Christian, you are Christ’s Epistle! You are being read like a letter!

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Concluding Matthew

The Gospel According to Matthew was the focus of our study in our Sunday Morning Bible Study Adult Class in the Auditorium in recent times. We enjoyed our study of this great book. It details so much about the wonderful Life of Christ. May we follow in His Footsteps each day!
