“9/11 AND REMEMBRANCE”

BY: TONY LAWRENCE

As was the case with the assassination of John F. Kennedy, many vividly remember where they were when they got news of the attacks on September 11, 2001. I remember where I was. I had been told about the first attack so went home to see it unfold on the television. Brother Garland Elkins had called to see if I could recommend a good brother to help save the school money with the landscaping around the newly built Forest Hill church of Christ and Memphis School of Preaching. While on the phone with him the second plane hit the twin towers of the World Trade Center. I sat there with shock and disbelief. Brother Elkins remarked about the evil in this world that would seek to harm his fellow man.

This makes me think of two things:

1. There were at least two great events in the history of man where that great enemy Satan sought to inflict harm on mankind. At the beginning he was a tempter that introduced sin into the world with the temptation of Eve. That great event forever changed the future of mankind, for death entered in with that sin (Rom. 5:12). The other great event was when the Devil persuaded the Jews of the first century to kill our Lord. We remember that second event every first day of the week (1Cor. 11:25-26). That event also forever changed the world. In contrast to the first event it brought hope through the sacrifice of Jesus and His resurrection.
2. The horrific event of 9/11 reminds me that the Lord's way is better and higher than all others. The believers in Islam are taught to inflict harm on their enemies. Yet, our Lord said, “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you,” Matthew 5:43-44. The Lord brought light into a world of darkness.

Let us remember the event and reflect on the blessing we have to have a Savior to delivers us from this world of darkness.
