“WHAT ASSEMBLING WITH THE SAINTS WILL DO FOR YOU: PART 2” BY: IVIE POWELL

There is no doubt that orchestras, dramas, choruses, testimonials, recreation and entertainment have an appeal to the flesh. However, New Testament worship is not based on man's likes and dislikes, but solely on biblical authority (Col. 3:17)! The diligent student of God's word quickly observes that all of the aforementioned are the direct result of man's departure from God's word. Whenever biblical authority is set aside, then, man will resort to his own devices, and when that takes place, biblical chaos ensues!

When speaking of worship, the attitude of some is: "What's in it for me?" Well, that really depends on what you bring with you. If you bring an attitude of sincerely worshiping God "in spirit and in truth" (John 4:24), then you will receive the following:

- You will have a greater knowledge of God's word (2 Tim. 2:15)!
- You will be preparing for a better and happier life (Phil. 4:4; 1 John 1:4)!
