Fourth, will unfaithful church members be saved? Faithful New Testament Christians in the Bible were faithful church members. Can an unfaithful Christian be saved? Read carefully Revelation 2:10. Writing to the church at Smyrna, Christ makes clear by the most graphic of illustrations that the unfaithful will be spued out (Rev. 3:15-16).

Yes, those in the church are in a heavenly place (Eph. 2:6). We are sons of God, heirs of God, brethren of the Lord. We need to be thankful—thankful to God for all of His blessings. We need to be thankful for the blessings associated with being a child of God, a member of the body of Christ, which is the church of Christ. Do you really appreciate the church that you read about in the Bible as you ought? To those who truly want to go to heaven, the greatness and the blessings of the church will be seen.

“THE CHURCH YOU READ ABOUT IN THE BIBLE” BY: JIM LAWS

There has been so much discussion about the church these days. It has been and continues to be a topic which many write about. To some it is nothing more than a human organization which we are free to change at will. To others it is a type of social club to join. Many see no real connection between the church of the New Testament and the all important matter of salvation.

First, let's consider what the Bible means by "church." When we speak of the church of the New Testament, we do not refer to a building in which we meet for worship. Someone says immediately, "Yes, I have known that even as a child." Perhaps this is true, but I think that we need to be reminded of it again and again. The word church originally comes from the word ekklesia, which in essence means "the called out." Those who have been obedient to the gospel of Christ are the called out ones (2 Cor. 6:14-18). When we speak of the church of the New Testament, we are speaking of people—people who have heard the Word of God and have grown to sufficient faith in Him that they have submissively given their lives to Him. The church is a living building, a spiritual one built of living stones (1 Pet. 2:5).

Second, how important is the church? It is so important to God that it was planned from the eternals (Eph. 3:8-11). Christ has been made the foundation of the church (1 Cor. 3:10-11). It is so important that even death itself could not prevent its establishment (Mat. 16:18). It is so important that Jesus purchased it with His own blood (Acts 20:28). How important is the blood of Christ? This is to say that Jesus died for the church (Eph. 5:25). She is referred to as the "bride of Christ" (Eph. 5:23-24; Rom. 7:4).

Third, is the church essential to one's salvation? Is the death of Christ essential (Eph. 5:25)? He died for the church. Must we be reconciled to God (Eph. 2:16)? We are reconciled to God in the body, and the body is the church (Eph. 1:22-23; Col. 1:18). Is being a child of God essential? One is either a child of God or a child of the devil (1 Tim. 3:15; 1 John 3:9-10). Children of God are born again (John 3:5). We are born into the family of God by being baptized into Christ, and God's family is the church (1 Tim. 3:15). Yes, indeed, the saved are added to the church (Acts 2:47).
