“WHAT IS RIGHT WITH OUR YOUTH?: PART 1”

BY: JASON R. ROBERTS

Much of our preaching and writing is directed toward what is wrong with our youth. Often we are quick to point out their mistakes, and in doing so we sometimes fail to praise their achievements. We want to reverse that order here and focus on what is right with our youth.

The wise man Solomon had some praiseworthy things to say regarding youth. Even though his sentiments were specifically written to admonish young people to manifest these virtuous qualities in their lives, they still remind us that many of our young people are exhibiting these same qualities on a day to day basis.

First, Solomon reminds today’s youth to live a life of rejoicing. “Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes” (Ecc. 11:9). It is God’s intent for young people to be happy—to live life to the fullest—within the framework of righteousness. Youth is a time to be happy, a time to discover, a time to “launch out into the deep” and to Carpe Diem (seize the day)! It is a time to learn, a time to laugh, a time to live. And it is encouraging to see so many of our young people doing this very thing—living the abundant life that God wants them to live—physically and spiritually speaking (cf., John 10:10).

Solomon wrote, “A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance” (Pro. 15:13). Again, he said, “A merry heart doeth good like a medicine” (Pro. 17:22). Young people have so much for which to rejoice: (1) They have their names written in the book of life (Phi. 4:3-4). (2) They have the privilege of prayer. Paul connected rejoicing and prayer together (Rom. 12:12). (3) They have the presence of God. Providentially speaking, the Lord is with them every step of the way. It is interesting that when the apostle Paul wrote, “Rejoice in the Lord” (Phi. 4:4), he gave a strong incentive to do so in the very next verse—“the Lord is at hand [near]” (v. 5).
