“A Friendly Church Seeking to Edify Each Other
as We Shine as Lights unto the World”

Serving Since 1923

“Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets (Matthew 7:12).”

“LEAVING THIS WORLD IS CERTAIN.”

BY: JASON GANN

James 4:14 says, “Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.” This is so true. Life is so short. I have been upon the earth for at or around as long as Jesus lived here as far as I can tell for 33 years. Those years have flown by me though. I thought time went a lot slower when I was in much younger and before I graduated high school. It seems like since a year after high school from 2000 to now that time has really flown. When I looked back on even my days before 2000, those now seem to me to have flown also. Time really does fly.

Hebrews 9:27-28 says, “And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.” We all have a time appointed in which we must die. Ecclesiastes 3:2 says, that we all have a “time to die,” of course, unless the Judgment Day comes first. Ecclesiastes 8:8 says, “There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.” This tells me that there is nothing that we can do to stop our death. There is no way that we have the power to keep our soul within us when God calls our soul to come out of our physical bodies to go into eternity.

In Job 1:21, Job says, “Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.” After Job’s children die and after he loses many of his possessions, he recognizes that God gives life and God takes away life. When God gets ready for us to leave our physical bodies our lives here are over, and there is nothing that we can do to stop our lives from being over here. Let us make sure that we are living for God each and every day! Make sure to put Him first in all of your doings. Matthew 6:33 says, “But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.” Let us grow closer to our God every day!

BIBLE SCHOOL CORNER

Study the Bible and Grow!

The way to grow spiritually starts with a study of God’s Word and a desire to follow it. Doing these things will make us strong spiritually, even to the point of being like a tree planted by the rivers of water that produces fruit and who leaves do not wither. We will be like a tree that prospers. Be sure to study God’s Word individually and in Bible class!

NEWS

- Welcome to the assembling of the Saints!
- Our hearts were made to rejoice on Wednesday, July 9, when brother Jason Gann repented of his sins and confessed his sins. Please remember to encourage him as he has rededicated his life to the Lord.
- Also, our hearts were made to rejoice on Wednesday, July 9, when sister Brandi Gann repented and confessed her sins. Please remember to encourage her as she has rededicated her life to the Lord.
- We are happy to announce the birth of Shirley Cheyenne Gann! She is the daughter of Jason and Brandi Gann, and the granddaughter of Charles and Shirley Gann, and Allen and Venus Barnes. She is the niece of Mike and Kristi Bost, and cousin of Noah, Katie, Kristin, and Karigan Bost. She was born this past Thursday, July 10, at 5:29 PM, weighing 7 pounds and measuring 20 and a half inches long. We welcome this little bundle of joy!
